

VISA® CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT

Please read this agreement carefully and save it for future reference. It contains Regulation Z disclosures and your rights in case of errors or inquiries about your bill.

This is the Agreement that covers your VISA® Cardholder Account with First Bank & Trust ("Account"). In this Agreement, the words "you" and "your" refer to each person who has applied for, accepted, or used the Account and each person who has agreed to be responsible for the Account ("Joint Account"). "We", "us", and "our" refer to First Bank & Trust, Brookings, South Dakota. The word "Card" means your VISA® Card.

This Agreement is effective when you use the Card or the Account or if you fail to cut your Card in half and return it to us within 30 days after the date it is issued to you.

To avoid unauthorized use of your Card, please sign the back of your Card immediately.

- Using Your Card. You may use your Card or Account to purchase or lease goods or services ("Purchases") to obtain cash loans ("Cash Advances") from any financial institution that accepts the Card. Any cash equivalents obtained with the Card will also be treated as Cash Advances. Cash equivalent transactions include but are not limited to wire transfers, money orders, travelers checks, tax payments, gold bullion purchase, and gaming transactions or services. If you use your Card or Account, you agree to us paying the amount owed to each merchant or financial institution which honored your Card.

If you give your Account number to make a purchase or obtain a Cash Advance without presenting your Card (such as for a mail order, telephone, or Internet purchase), the legal effect will be the same as if the Card itself was used by you.

If we, at our option, give you a Personal Identification Number ("PIN"), you may use your Card to obtain a Cash Advance from any Automated Teller Machine ("ATM") that bears the VISA® logo. All ATM transactions are treated under terms of this Agreement the same as Cash Advances. We have the right to restrict your access to any qualified ATM at any time. You should not keep your PIN with your Card. If you believe that anyone has gained unauthorized access to your PIN, you should advise us immediately, following the procedures under the heading "Lost or Stolen Card."

- Joint Account. If this is a Joint Account ("Joint Account"), each person (a) may obtain Purchases and Cash Advances (but the total of these cannot exceed the credit line); (b) will be responsible for paying all amounts owed; and (c) can close the Account.

Authorized User - Any person you authorize to use the Card (whether Cardholder or not and whether such use exceeds the limit you authorized or intended) ("Authorized User").

- Credit Line. Your credit line is shown on the folder containing your Card. We may increase or decrease your credit line from time to time, subject to applicable law. We base that decision on a variety of factors such as an evaluation of the account history and the primary cardholder's credit score. Your latest credit line will appear on your monthly billing statement. You agree not to make any Purchases or obtain any Cash Advances that would cause the unpaid balance of your Account to exceed your credit line. We may honor Purchases and Cash Advances in excess of your credit line at our sole discretion. If we do, this Agreement also applies to that excess, and you agree to pay the excess immediately if we demand that you do so. You agree that we may change or cancel your credit line at any time without affecting your obligation to pay amounts that you owe under this Agreement.

- Billing Statements. We will promptly send a Monthly Billing Statement at the end of each monthly billing cycle if your Account has a debit or credit balance or there has been activity on your Account. The Monthly Billing Statement will show the Previous Balance, Purchases and Cash Advances posted during the billing period, any Interest Charges, and all payments, debits, and credits to your Account through the Billing Cycle Closing Date. It will also show, among other things, your New Balance, the Minimum Payment Due, and the Payment Due Date (which will be at least 25 days after the Billing Cycle Closing Date).

- Lost or Stolen Card. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Card. You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us through our agent at 1-800-259-0114 orally of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. You may also notify us in writing of loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use at CARD SERVICES, PO Box 6000, Brookings, SD 57006. In either case, your maximum liability is $50 for unauthorized charges to your Account made prior to receipt of your oral or written notification.

- Promise to Pay. By applying for and obtaining credit on your Account, you agree jointly and severally, if more than one person applies for the Account, to be obligated and pay for all credit obtained on your Account by you or any person you authorize to use your Card, as well as our Interest charges and any other fees imposed by us, as provided for in the Agreement. You agree to pay us only in U.S. Dollars drawn on U.S. financial institutions.

- Irregular Payment and Delay in Enforcement, Waivers and Releases. We can accept late payments, partial payments, checks and money orders marked "paid in full" or language having the same effect without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. We can also delay enforcing our rights under this Agreement any number of times without losing them and can waive or delay enforcing a right against one of you without waiving or delaying it as to the other. No waiver by us of any default shall be effective unless in writing nor operate as a waiver of any other future default. We can release any one of you in whole or in part without affecting your obligation under this Agreement.

- Minimum Payments. You may pay your New Balance each month, or you may pay in monthly installments. If you decide to pay in monthly installments, you must pay at least the Minimum Payment Due shown on your Monthly Billing Statement by the Payment Due Date. The Minimum Amount Due will also include any amount past due and any amount by which your Account exceeds its credit limit. You may pay more than the Minimum Payment Due and may at any time pay your total balance due. We will apply payments to amounts owed on your Account based on applicable laws. Available credit created as a result of payments applied to your Account may not be available for up to seven (7) days if circumstances warrant a hold, or if we deem ourselves at risk for any reason.

If your New Balance is greater than $15.00, then the Minimum Payment Due will be the greater of $15.00 or 3% of your total outstanding balance, plus Late Fee and any amount that is delinquent, and any amount by which your Account exceeds its credit limit. If the New Balance is less than $15.00 you pay only the New Balance. When we calculate the Minimum Payment Due, it will be rounded to the next highest $5.00 increment.

Your Account is not in good standing if at any time we do not receive at least the Minimum Payment Due by the 60th day after the Payment Due Date shown on the Monthly Billing Statement.

- Consumer Reporting Agencies (Credit Bureaus). We routinely provide data about customer loan repayment and transactions to consumer reporting agencies and other creditors. We may report information about your Account(s) to credit bureaus, which may also impact an Authorized User's credit score. Late Payments, missed payments, or other Defaults on your Account(s) may be reflected in your credit report and any Authorized User's credit report.

- INTEREST CHARGES. Your Account is subject to the following Interest charges, each of which will be charged to your Account as a Purchase:

Periodic Interest Charges. An INTEREST CHARGE is imposed on Purchases beginning on the date the Purchase is posted to your Account. An INTEREST CHARGE is imposed on Balance Transfers beginning on the date the Balance Transfer is posted to your Account. No INTEREST CHARGE will be imposed on your Purchases and Balance Transfers if the Previous Balance shown on your Monthly Billing Statement is zero and you pay your New Balance in full by the Payment Due Date shown on your Monthly Billing Statement. An INTEREST CHARGE is imposed on Cash Advances beginning on the date they are obtained and continues until the balance of your Account is paid in full. There is no time in which you can pay the balance of Cash Advances in order to completely avoid an INTEREST CHARGE.

Unless an Introductory rate is in effect, the periodic rate used to compute the INTEREST CHARGE for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances is based on an index (the "Index"), which is the Prime Rate as published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the month and is subject to change monthly on the first day of each month. Any change in the Index will be effective on the first day of the billing cycle that ends on or after the date of the change.

The Average Daily Balance is computed by taking the beginning balance of your Account on each day calculated separately for Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances, adding new Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances, and subtracting any payments and credits. Any resulting credit balance is treated as a zero ($0.00) balance. This gives us the daily balance. The daily balances are then added together and divided by the number of days in the billing cycle to get the Average Daily Balance.

Minimum Interest Charge. The minimum Periodic INTEREST CHARGE each billing cycle, based on the Periodic Rate, is $2.00.

Cash Advance Fee. In addition to the INTEREST CHARGE on Cash Advances calculated by application of the Periodic Rate, there is an INTEREST CHARGE of 3% (minimum $5.00), whichever is greater, for each Cash Advance posted to your Account that month.

- Fees. Your Account is subject to the following fees, each of which will be charged to your Account as a Purchase:

Annual Fee. You agree to pay an Annual Fee each year for the privileges you have under this Agreement. You agree to pay this fee whether or not you use your Account at any time during this year. The Annual Fee for the Account is $49. The Annual Fee for the Account will be reflected on your Monthly Billing Statement for the month in which we charge your Account. Payment of the Annual Fee by you will not affect your rights under this Agreement, including your right to terminate this Agreement.

Pay by Phone Fee. Pay By Phone is an Optional Payment Service. You may pay your account online or you may request to make your payment by phone using our optional telephone payment service. Each time a representative of ours helps expedite your payment, you agree to pay us $5.00. Our representatives are trained to tell you this amount if you decided to use this optional telephone payment service.

Rush Card Fee. If you request a rush delivery of your Card, you may be charged $30.00.

Late Fee. If we do not receive a payment from you in at least the amount of your Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date shown on any Monthly Billing Statement, you may be charged a Late Fee equal to the amount of the Minimum Payment Due up to a maximum of $37.00.

Returned Payment Fee. If you make a payment on your Account and your check or other payment instrument is not honored for any reason or cannot be processed, we may charge a Returned Payment Fee equal to the amount of the Minimum Payment Due up to a maximum of $35.00.

Account Handling Fee. If you are in default of this Agreement and it is necessary for us to place restrictions on your Account, you may be charged an Account Handling Fee of $25.00. If these restrictions cause your Card to be retained and returned to us, you agree to pay all charges associated with recovering your Card.

Reinstatement Fee. If we close your Account due to your default and we later reinstate your Account at your request, you may be charged a Reinstatement Fee of $25.00.

Statement Copy Fee. If you request a copy of a Monthly Billing Statement, you may be charged a Statement Copy Fee of $2.50 per page.

12. Default/Collection Costs. Your Account will be in default and we may demand immediate payment of the entire amount you owe us without giving you prior notice, if: (a) your Minimum Payment Due is not received by the Payment Due Date; (b) you make Purchases or obtain Cash Advances in excess of your credit line; (c) you become insolvent or are a party to a bankruptcy proceeding; (d) in the case of a Joint Account, where either of you request termination of the other; (e) you die or become incapacitated; (f) you provide false information to us, misuse the Account or Card or violate any term of this Agreement; (g) any judgment or lien is filed against you; or (h) we reasonably believe that your ability to repay your obligations to us has been materially impaired. We shall also have the right to all remedies provided by law including, without limitation, closing or refusing to renew your Account and demanding return of your Card(s). If we refer your Account for collections to an attorney who is not our regularly salaried employee, you agree to pay the reasonable fees of such attorney and, whether or not an attorney is retained, all court and other collection costs (including and amounts actually incurred by us in recovering your Cards(s)).

13. Refusals to Honor Card. We are not responsible for refusals to honor your Card. And, except as otherwise required by law or regulations, we will not be responsible for merchandise or services purchased through use of your Card.

14. Termination. We may terminate your privileges under the Agreement or cancel or limit your privileges to make Purchases or obtain Cash Advances at any time, with or without cause, without notice or liability. If we ask, you must return your Card(s) to us, cut in half. You agree that you will not try to make any Purchases or obtain Cash Advances after you have been notified that your privileges to use your Account have been cancelled. You may cancel this Agreement by returning all Cards issued on your Account to us, cut in half. Your or our termination or cancellation will not affect your existing obligations under this Agreement.

15. Notices. We will send statements and any other notices to you at the address shown in our files. If this is a Joint Account, we can notify one of you and the notice will be effective for both of you. Similarly, one of you can notify us and we will consider it to be notice from both of you. You promise to inform us promptly in writing of any change in your address. In determining your last known address, we can accept address corrections received from the U.S. Postal Service.

16. Changes in Agreement Terms. We can change any term of this Agreement, including the rate at which or manner in which interest charges are calculated, at any time upon such notice to you as is required by law. At our option, any change will apply both to your new activity and to your outstanding balance when the change is effective. If you do not wish to be subject to the change, you must notify us in writing within 25 days of the effective date of the change and close your Account. Use of the Card after the effective date of the change is deemed acceptance of the new terms.

17. Arbitration. PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION OF THE AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. UNLESS YOU EXERCISE THE RIGHT TO OPT-OUT OF ARBITRATION IN THE MANNER DESCRIBED BELOW, YOU AGREE THAT ANY DISPUTE (DEFINED BELOW) WILL BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO HAVE A JURY, TO ENGAGE IN DISCOVERY (EXCEPT AS MAY BE PROVIDED IN THE AAA CONSUMER ARBITRATION RULES), AND TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING. IN ARBITRATION, A DISPUTE IS RESOLVED BY AN ARBITRATOR INSTEAD OF A JUDGE OR JURY. ARBITRATION PROCEDURES ARE SIMPLER AND MORE LIMITED THAN COURT PROCEDURES. YOU ALSO AGREE ANY ARBITRATION WILL BE LIMITED TO THE DISPUTE BETWEEN YOU AND US AND WILL NOT BE PART OF A CLASS-WIDE OR CONSOLIDATED ARBITRATION PROCEEDING.

Agreement to Arbitrate. Except as provided below, you and we agree that any Dispute will be resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) in accordance with its Consumer Arbitration Rules. This arbitration provision is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C.S. § 1 et seq., and the substantive law of the State of South Dakota (without applying its choice-of-law rules).

Definitions. Arbitration is a means of having an independent third party resolve a Dispute. A "Dispute" is any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to, or in connection with, this Agreement or the breach thereof, including, without limitation, any claim relating to your Card or Account and any issue concerning the validity, enforceability, or scope of this arbitration provision.

For purposes of this arbitration provision, the terms "you" and "your" include any co-signor or Authorized User and also your heirs, guardian, personal representative, or trustee in bankruptcy. The terms "us," "our," and "we" include our employees, officers, directors, attorneys, affiliated companies, predecessors, and assigns, as well as our marketing, servicing, and collection representatives and agents.

Initiating Arbitration. The party initiating arbitration must file a demand for arbitration with the AAA, with such arbitration to be conducted by a single arbitrator. You may obtain copies of the current rules of the AAA, including forms and instructions for initiating arbitration, by contacting the AAA at (800)-778-7879 or by visiting www.adr.org. If you claim you have a Dispute with us, but you do not initiate arbitration, we may do so.

If the jurisdiction of an AAA arbitrator is challenged or the AAA is not available to resolve the Dispute for any reason, you and we will each select a local arbitrator. The local arbitrators selected by you and us shall then agree upon the selection of another neutral, independent arbitrator who will be solely responsible to hear and resolve the Dispute. The single arbitrator selected to resolve the Dispute must be an attorney with at least ten (10) years' experience, retired judge, or arbitrator registered and in good standing with an arbitration association and must arbitrate pursuant to such arbitration firm's rules applicable to consumer disputes or such other rules and procedures agreed to by the parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no party or local arbitrator may select an arbitrator who refuses to enforce an arbitration provision containing a class-action waiver because you and we have waived any right to arbitrate a Dispute on a class-action, representative-action, or consolidated basis.

The policies and procedures of the AAA will apply, provided that these are consistent with this arbitration provision. To the extent the AAA's rules or procedures are different than the terms of this arbitration provision, the terms of this provision will apply.

Cost of Arbitration. You and we agree to pay the filing fees and any costs or expenses charged by the AAA in accordance with the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules. This means that, if you initiate an arbitration with the AAA, you will pay a portion of the filing fee (unless prohibited by applicable law). If the AAA is not available to resolve the Dispute, we agree to pay the expenses charged by the selected arbitrator. Except where otherwise provided by applicable law, each party will be responsible for its own attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses. Unless prohibited by law, the arbitrator may award fees, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees to the party who substantially prevails in the arbitration.

Place of Arbitration. Unless you and we agree to a different location, the arbitration will be held in the same city as the U.S. District Court closest to your then current mailing address.

Waiver of Rights. You are waiving your right to a jury trial, to have a court decide your Dispute, to participate in a class action lawsuit, and to certain discovery and other procedures that are available in a lawsuit. The arbitrator has the ability to award all remedies available by statute, at law, or in equity to the prevailing party, except that you and we agree that the arbitrator has no authority to conduct class-wide proceedings and will be restricted to resolving the individual Disputes between you and us. The validity, effect, and enforceability of this waiver of class action lawsuit and class-wide arbitration are to be determined solely by a court of competent jurisdiction and not by an arbitration firm or arbitrator. If the court refuses to enforce the class-wide arbitration waiver, or if an arbitration firm or arbitrator fails or refuses to enforce the waiver of class-wide arbitration, you and we agree that the Dispute will proceed in court and will be decided by a judge, sitting without a jury, under applicable court rules and procedures.

Applicable Law and Judicial Review. The arbitrator will apply applicable federal and South Dakota substantive law and the terms of this Agreement. The arbitrator must apply the terms of this arbitration provision, including without limitation the waiver of class-wide arbitration. The arbitrator will make written findings and the arbitrator's award may be filed with any court having jurisdiction. The arbitration award will be supported by substantial evidence and must be consistent with this Agreement and applicable law or may be set aside by a court upon judicial review. Either party may seek judicial review of the arbitrator's decision according to applicable law.

Small Claims Court. All parties, including related third parties, shall retain the right to seek adjudication in a small claims court for Disputes within the scope of such court's jurisdiction. Any Dispute, which cannot be adjudicated within the jurisdiction of a small claims court, shall be resolved by binding arbitration.

Other Provisions. This arbitration provision will survive: (i) termination or changes in this Agreement, the Card, the Account, or the relationship between you and us concerning the Card or Account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party; and (iii) any movement, sale or assignment of your Card, the Account, or any amounts you owe to us, to any other person or entity. If any portion of this arbitration provision is subsequently deemed unenforceable, the enforceability of any other term of this arbitration provision shall not be affected and the unenforceable term shall be amended such that it is enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Right to Opt Out. If you do not wish your Card to be subject to this arbitration provision, you must advise us in writing by contacting us at P.O. Box 6000, Brookings, SD 57006. Clearly print or type your name and Card number and state that you reject arbitration. You must give written notice, and it is not sufficient to telephone us. Send only your notice to reject arbitration; do not include the notice with other correspondence to us. We must receive your rejection notice at the above address within sixty (60) days after the date this Agreement was first provided to you in connection with opening your Account or your rejection of arbitration will not be effective. If the Agreement is subsequently revised or amended, you will not be granted another time period in which to reject arbitration, unless the revision or amendment was made to the arbitration provision above.

18. Venue and Jurisdiction. You consent to be subject to the jurisdiction and venue of the Circuit Court for the Third Judicial Circuit, State of South Dakota, and agree that such court shall be the sole and exclusive jurisdiction and venue of all court actions of disputes or claims arising from or relating to this Agreement or the Account relationship.

19. Applicable Law. This Agreement is entered into in the State of South Dakota where the decision to grant credit is made and in which payments will be received. Therefore, this Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of South Dakota without giving reference to its conflict of law provisions. If there is any conflict between any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and applicable law, this Agreement will be considered changed to the extent necessary to comply with the law. The other provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected.

20. Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding upon and enforceable against your heirs, legal representatives, or successors.

21. Foreign Currency Transactions. If you effect an international transaction at a merchant that settles in a currency other than U.S. dollars the rate used to determine the transaction amount for such transactions is generally either a government mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by Visa® for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, and may be increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time by Visa®, The rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase or cardholder statement posting date.

If you effect a transaction at a merchant that settles in a currency other than U.S. dollars, VISA® will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount. Visa® will use its currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such transactions is generally either a government mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by Visa® for the processing cycle in which the adjustment factor established from time to time by Visa®. The currency conversion rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase or cardholder statement posting date.

For each purchase transaction in a foreign currency that has been converted into a U.S. dollar amount by Visa, we may pass along the Foreign Transaction Fee up to 1% of each transaction converted to U.S. Dollars.

22. Illegal Transactions. Your Card and Account may be used only for valid and lawful purposes. If you use or allow someone else to use your Card and Account for any other purpose, you will be responsible for such use and may be required to reimburse us for all amounts or expenses we pay as a result of such use.

23. Military Lending Act Disclosure. Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extension of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account, the following: the costs associated with credit insurance premiums, fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction, any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts), and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

To have the MLA disclosure provided to your orally, please call 800.843.1552 and request to speak with a Digital Banking Specialist.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS
KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us [on a separate sheet] at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including interest charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any interest charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay interest charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right:

- You must have made the Purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- The Purchase price must have been more than $50.00.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
